The Evolution of Special Education: From Segregation to Inclusion

A Historical Perspective

Special education's history is marked by a progression from segregation to integration and, ultimately, inclusion. In the early 20th century, students with disabilities were often isolated in separate institutions, reflecting societal attitudes that viewed disabilities as deficits needing confinement rather than diversity to be accommodated. The Shift Toward Inclusion

Today, the predominant philosophy emphasizes inclusion—educating students with exceptionalities alongside their peers in

Legal Frameworks and Policies Shaping Special Education

The Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA)

At the core of current special education practices is IDEA, first enacted in 1975 and reauthorized multiple times, most recently as IDEA 2004. This law mandates: - The provision of FAPE - Development of Individualized Education Programs (IEPs) - Least restrictive environment (LRE) placement principles - Procedural safeguards for parents and students IDEA emphasizes a collaborative approach involving educators, families, and students to tailor educational experiences.

Other Influential Policies

- Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act (1973): Protects students from discrimination and ensures accommodations in school. - The Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA, 2015): Promotes accountability and supports diverse learners. - State-specific regulations: Many states have additional policies to support implementation of federal laws.

Current Practices and Approaches in Exceptional Lives Special Education

Individualized Education Programs (IEPs)
