The repeated coins landing on heads suggest that events may seem random but are part of a larger, unknowable order. 2. The Identity Discussion "We're actors, but we don't know what role we're playing." Here, Stoppard emphasizes the fluidity of identity, suggesting that humans are performers in the theater of life, often unaware of their true selves or the script they follow. 3. The Encounter with the Player "All the world's a stage, and all the men and women merely players."
