Joannes Rochut, a renowned trombonist and pedagogue, adapted and arranged these etudes specifically for trombone, emphasizing lyrical playing and musicality alongside technical mastery. Alan Raph, a distinguished trombonist and arranger, further contributed by editing, annotating, and sometimes reconfiguring these études to suit modern pedagogical needs.

This collection is often regarded as an essential part of the trombonist's library due to its focus on melodic development, phrasing, and stylistic versatility—elements that are crucial for both classical and jazz trombone playing.
