Understanding the Causes of the Civil War

The Civil War, fought from 1861 to 1865, was primarily driven by deep-rooted disagreements over slavery, states' rights, and economic differences between the North and South. These tensions culminated in a national crisis that threatened to tear the country apart.

Key Causes of the Civil War

- Slavery: The most contentious issue, with the Southern economy heavily dependent on enslaved labor and the Northern states increasingly opposing the expansion of slavery into new territories. - States' Rights: Southern states advocated for greater autonomy to make decisions about slavery and other policies, challenging federal authority. - Economic Differences: The industrialized North favored tariffs and a centralized economy, while the agrarian South relied on free trade and slave labor. - Election of Abraham Lincoln: Lincoln's election in 1860, on a platform opposing the spread of slavery, prompted Southern states to secede, fearing the abolition of slavery and loss of political power. - Secession and Formation of the Confederacy: Starting with South Carolina in December 1860, eleven Southern states seceded and formed the Confederate States of America, setting the stage for war.

The Major Battles and Turning Points of the Civil War

Understanding the key battles and military strategies provides insight into how the war unfolded and ultimately resulted in Union victory.

Important Battles

- Battle of Fort Sumter (1861): Marked the start of the Civil War, when Confederate forces attacked a Union fort in South Carolina. - Battle of Antietam (1862): Known as the bloodiest single-day battle in American history, it halted Confederate advances into the North. - Battle of Gettysburg (1863): A turning point that ended Confederate hopes of invading the North and boosted Union morale. - Siege of Vicksburg (1863): Gave the Union control of the Mississippi River, splitting the Confederacy. - Battle of Appomattox Court House (1865): Marked the surrender of Confederate General Robert E. Lee, effectively ending the war.

The Reconstruction Era (1865-1877)

Goals of Reconstruction
