An effective dispute letter not only clarifies your position but also increases the likelihood of a favorable resolution, making it an essential document in real estate transactions, refinancing, or mortgage processes.

Understanding the Importance of an Appraisal Dispute Letter

An appraisal dispute letter serves as a formal communication tool between the property owner or borrower and the appraisal management company or lender. Its primary purpose is to challenge an appraisal result that you believe is inaccurate or unfair. Whether due to outdated information, overlooked features, or appraisal errors, submitting a well-crafted dispute letter is often the first step toward correction. Key reasons for disputing an appraisal include: - The appraised value is significantly lower than recent comparable sales. - The appraisal omits or undervalues key property features. - There are factual inaccuracies in the appraisal report. - Changes in the property's condition or market conditions are not reflected. Crafting a compelling dispute letter requires clarity, professionalism, and supporting evidence. It acts as a formal record and can often prompt a review or reappraisal, potentially increasing the property's value and influencing financial decisions.

Components of an Effective Sample Appraisal Dispute Letter

A well-structured dispute letter typically contains several essential elements to communicate effectively and persuade the recipient to reconsider the appraisal. Below are the core components:

1. Clear Introduction

Begin your letter by stating your intention to dispute the appraisal report. Clearly identify the property in question and include relevant details such as the property address, appraisal date, and appraiser's name if known. Example: _"I am writing to formally dispute the appraisal report dated March 15, 2024, for the property located at 123 Maple Street, Springfield. I believe the appraised value does not accurately reflect the current market conditions or property features."_

2. Concise Explanation of Dispute

Detail the specific reasons for your disagreement. Focus on factual inaccuracies, overlooked features, or outdated data. Be precise and avoid emotional language. Example: _"The appraisal report undervalues the recent renovations, including a new kitchen and roof replacement completed in 2023, which are not reflected in the valuation. Additionally, recent comparable sales in the neighborhood suggest a higher market value."_

3. Supporting Evidence and Documentation

Include evidence to substantiate your claims. This can encompass: - Recent comparable sales (comps) - Photos of upgrades or repairs - Appraisal reports or inspection summaries - Market data or trend reports - Property inspection reports Attach copies of these documents and reference them in your letter.

when listing issues or evidence.

Step 4: Include Contact Information

Provide your contact details for follow-up questions or discussions.

Sample Appraisal Dispute Letter Template

Your Name Your Address City, State, ZIP Code Email Address Phone Number Date Appraisal Management Company or Lender Name Address City, State, ZIP Code Subject: Dispute of Property Appraisal – 123 Maple Street Dear [Recipient's Name or "To Whom It May Concern"], I am writing to formally dispute the appraisal report dated March 15, 2024, for the property located at 123 Maple Street, Springfield. I appreciate the effort involved in preparing the report; however, I believe certain inaccuracies and omissions have led to an undervaluation of my property. Reasons for Dispute: 1. Unaccounted Property Improvements: The appraisal does not reflect recent upgrades, including a new kitchen installed in 2023 and a roof replacement completed in the same year. These renovations significantly enhance the property's value. 2. Comparable Sales: Recent sales data from the neighborhood indicate higher market values than those used in the appraisal. Attached are three comparable properties sold within the past six months, all exceeding

the appraised value. 3. Factual Errors: The report states the property has two bedrooms; however, it has three bedrooms, as confirmed by the attached floor plan and inspection report. Supporting Evidence: - Photographs of recent renovations - Market analysis report with comparable sales data - Copies of inspection reports confirming property details - Floor plan indicating the number of bedrooms I respectfully request a review of the appraisal, considering the above evidence. I am confident that an updated appraisal or review will reflect a more accurate property value. Please contact me at [your phone number] or [your email] should you require further information or clarification. Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter. Sincerely, [Your Name]
